

I do not want banks, credit card companies, or anyone calling me for marketing reasons. They always interupt family time and I have better things to do with my time then listen to their comments. Please do not let the no call list slip for our protection.